Why Jesus Came:

To Save, Not Judge

John 12:47

---

- Context of John 12

To save, not judge

---

- Jesus is not saying—
“I never say anyone is guilty of sin”

To save, not judge

---

- Jesus is not saying—
“I love, so I never judge and neither should my disciples”

To save, not judge

---

- Jesus is not saying—
“I came to save, and so I will let no one be lost”

To save, not judge

---

- Application
  - Different kinds of judging
Mt. 7:1-5; Jn. 7:24; Js. 4:11-12

To save, not judge

- Application
  - Belief is the key (Heb. 11)

To save, not judge

---

- Application

- Jesus has provided all we need

1. He says He came—do you believe Jesus was really on earth?

2. He came to show the way out of darkness—do you accept His definition of light, darkness?

3. He will judge you by His word—is that comforting or fearful?
